

Good morning kiddos,

Today you start your second to last project, a Photoshop collage. This is not like your Instagram collages. This would be considered artwork.

Now I am not going to lie, these are pulled directly from the interwebs. The pictures on my website are linked up to tutorials, but I am sure they are blocked. Since you all use your phones illegally anyways, why not look it up that way if you want.

Here is the kicker. The tutorials will give you photos to download. YOU CANNOT USE THOSE!! YOU MUST USE YOUR OWN PHOTOS!!!!

Let me repeat: YOU MUST USE YOUR OWN PHOTOS!!!!

You do not have to use any of the tutorials and just use the examples as inspiration/reference. I will be grading these before I leave.

They are due Friday, May 1st.

Good luck. Email me with questions. I'll try to stop in some time next week.
